Pastoral Letter

Dear Friends

We sing this lovely song in our services across the Benefice

*"Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too."*

Most of us have very little difficulty with the first two lines, serving those around us with acts of kindness and thoughtfulness comes easily; but what about the last two lines?

What set me off on this train of thought was something that I observed on the bendy-bus being driven out to the plane at Manchester Airport a fortnight ago. We were crammed in like sardines and by the time I was on the bus it was standing room only. I wasn't the last person to board though, a severely disabled gentleman managed to climb aboard as we were about to pull away. A mum immediately prompted her son to stand up and offer his seat to the said gentleman, who refused the offer. The lad didn't sit down again in the seat that had been declined but continued to stand as we lurched about across the tarmac. Where was that gentleman's grace? The grace to let the lad be his servant too?

My observation is that most of us really struggle with the concept of allowing others to serve us. I expect that most of us have come across someone struggling with a heavy suitcase at the station, or a young mum trying to juggle the folding of a buggy, while holding the shopping and the baby. Our offer of assistance is met with, "Don't worry, I'll manage, thank you". The rebuff makes us feel a bit useless and there comes a point where we stop bothering to offer help.

So if you are offered assistance it is gracious to say "Thank you" and explain how you can be helped.

Grace in action!

However, there is another aspect of grace that we should all take into account and that is the willingness to be fair and to forgive. This quality is so essential where the impact of our behaviour is often felt by so many others. Intransigence, insistence on our own way, lack of regard for the feelings of others – these are not gracious behaviours at all and do nothing but spoil the harmony of our society.

At the end of many meetings Christians pray St Paul's prayer that he wrote at the very end of his second letter to the Corinthians

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And that is my prayer for you all.

With blessings in abundance

Your sister in Christ

Joanna

Getting to know Jesus better...

This month we continue to look at John, chapter 5

English Standard Version of the Bible

Notes by Matt Rich, pastor of Bethany Christian Church, Ulverston

If I alone bear witness about myself, my testimony is not true. There is another who bears witness about me, and I know that the testimony that he bears about me is true. You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.

Not that the testimony that I receive is from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. But the testimony that I have is greater than that of John.

For the works that the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I am doing, bear witness about me that the Father has sent me. And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent.

This is a bit confusing to read at first glance, but what Jesus was saying is - "John the Baptist spent his time talking about me and you listened to him, so why are you doubting who I am now."

Jesus then went on to say they didn't need to just rely on what John the Baptist said about Him. It wasn't just about a recommendation by a man because God the Father was recommending him.

Jesus explained that the people needed to look at the miracles He was doing because they were the proof that God the Father had sent Him and approved of what He was doing and what He was saying.

Jesus' other warning to them was that if they didn't believe in Him they didn't really know or follow God.
